

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO CANCEL

Notice of a right to cancel your contract with Talbots Law Ltd pursuant to the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013.

1. Right to cancel

You have the right to cancel this contract within 14 days without giving any reason. This is called the cancellation period.

The cancellation period will expire after 14 days from the day of the conclusion of the contract.

To exercise the right to cancel, you must inform us of your decision to cancel this contract by a clear statement (e.g a letter sent by post, a fax or an email). You may use the attached model Cancellation Form but it is not obligatory.

To meet the cancellation deadline, it is sufficient for you to send your communication concerning your exercise of the right to cancel before the cancellation period has expired.

2. Effects of cancellation

If you cancel this contract, we will reimburse to you all payments received from you, except for sums due as a result of you requesting us to start work on your matter.

We will make the reimbursement no later than 14 days after the day on which we are informed about your decision to cancel this contract.

We will make the reimbursement using the same means of payment as you used for the initial transaction, (except for payments in cash where a cheque will be issued or a bank transfer effected) unless you have expressly agreed otherwise; in any event, you will not incur any fees as a result of the reimbursement.

If you requested us to begin the performance of services during the cancellation period, you shall pay us an amount which is in proportion to what has been performed until you have communicated to us your cancellation from this contract, in comparison with the full coverage of the contract.
